Policies & Disclaimers

- I understand that all tuition and registration fees are non-refundable unless a doctor's note is received.
- I understand that during the instruction of dance class the occasion may arise that an instructor must have physical contact with my child to reposition arms, legs, feet, head, etc. in order to avoid injury.
- Parents and guardians will not be permitted to enter the classroom with their children, as it proves to be distracting to the students. However, we often leave the door open so that you can peek at your child's progress.
- Students should arrive 5 to 10 minutes early for their class so that they can be ready at the class start time. Students may not enter class late or leave early without permission from their instructor. Please do not open the studio door if music is playing. Students should be picked up at the end of their class time.
- Remember that our parking lot is shared with other businesses. Please supervise your children outside and do not allow your children to play in the parking lot. Also, please do not allow your children to play with the stones and rocks located around the outside of the buildings.
- Students are expected to be respectful of the studios and waiting areas and responsible for its tidiness. Students are also expected to be respectful of their instructors and fellow students.
- We ask that dancers, parents and siblings drink only water while at NVDA. Please no coffee, milk, soda, sports drinks or juices of any kind. If a snack is necessary, we ask that you choose something like Goldfish or pretzels that will not cause damage to our space. Please no chewing gum in the building.
- Students are not permitted to wear their dance shoes outside. If a student is seen outside in their dance shoes they will not be permitted in class. Street shoes may not be worn in the studio.
- I give permission for NVDA to take photos of my child for promotional purposes.
